

Ran Slavin is a Tel Aviv based artist whose work spans the mediums of film, sound, photography, video installation, video-sound performance. Both his video and audio work relate to fiction and cinema in a wide sense. His work primarily deals with changes of order in perception and scenery, and often explores enigmatic and intense locations. His work looks at impermanent ghostly figures on a brink of transformation and the fusion of fictitious realities, where digital supernatural and mythical elements interfere with the contemporary. Interested in dream logic, digital culture and dense urban spaces and utilizes a continuous use of post production. He has been shown internationally at various exhibitions and venues among them Taiwan International Video Art Exhibition –Hong-Gah Museum (2014), Kunsthalle/Hannover (2013), Mediations Biennale/Poland (2012), Manifesta Satellite events/Belgium (2012), Museum on the Seam/ Jerusalem (2012), Maerzmusik/Berlin (2011), Videoformes/France (2010), Petah Tikva Art Museum/Israel (2009), Tel Aviv Art Museum(2009), Network Centre for Contemporary Art/Belgium (2008), Torino film festival/Italy (2007), Ars Electronica/Linz (mention of honor) (2007), Liverpool Biennial (2006), Rencontres Internationales–Madrid–Berlin–Paris (2006–2012), Venice Architecture Biennial (2004), Transmediale/Berlin (2003).
